

Cyber defender

Cybersecurity analysts ensure businesses protect sensitive data identity, that systems are maintained and updated, and provide ongoing monitoring and investigation in situations where there may be breaches.

Recommended school subjects

Business, accounting, mathematics, technology

Ability to work overseas

Salary

Average AU: $130,000, NZ: $120,000¹

Required study

Bachelor degree or higher in Accounting, Commerce Management or Business Information Systems, with a CA qualification

Where could you work?

- Accounting firms
- Banks
- Large corporate organisations including listed companies

Key skills

- Strong business and commercial awareness
- Problem solving
- Attention to detail
- Communication
- Ability to work with a range of stakeholders

Read about the cybersecurity siblings who are using their CA skills to protect businesses.

