

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Charles Sturt
University

Professional Learning READING GROUPS PROGRAM

Are you a primary or secondary teacher in Victoria interested to engage with latest research informed teaching pedagogies and strategies to support student learning?

We are researchers at University of Melbourne, Faculty of Education, and School of Education, Charles Sturt University delivering a professional learning reading groups program to allow exchange of knowledge between teaching practitioners and educational researchers to enhance student learning.

Who is invited to be involved?

- Teachers currently teaching in a Victorian primary or secondary school. You may participate in the reading groups but not the study if you wish.

What is involved?

- Complete two online questionnaires (approximately 20 minutes each) at the beginning and at the end of the professional learning program.

How will your input make a difference?

- Get access to latest research finding in education and new pedagogical strategies to enhance student learning.
- Get support from academics to apply the concepts in their classroom practice.

The fine print:

This research has been approved by the University of Melbourne Human Ethics Committee. Project Number: Project ID Number: (2024 - 28989 - 52498 - 3) and Victoria Department of Education (Project ID: 24-05-330).

Participation is completely voluntary, and you can withdraw at any time.

Please contact Merryn Dawborn Gundlach merryn.dawborn-gundlach@unimelb.edu.au